

CHAT question: what diversity equity inclusion education resources or experiences have you connected to lately?

From Elaine Capes DC MOVES Coordinator to Everyone:

Book Mad Honey Jodi Picoult / Jennifer Finney Boylan

From Anita Macfarlane to Everyone:

Read White Fragility by Robin DiAngelo

From Anita Macfarlane to Everyone:

Also had Iona Sky, EDI specialist review and give suggestions on EDI edits for Scholarship Applications.

Also, added EDI statement to Terms of Reference

From Branching Out Support Services to Everyone:

I was reading this article this week as I did some prep for another workshop

<https://www.inclusionhub.com/articles/a11y-at-salesforce>

From Branching Out Support Services to Everyone:

It had some great definitions of accessibility,, inclusion and belonging.

From Norah Kennedy to Everyone:

starting to work with an external DEI consultant to do training with leadership at FTP and to start work on creating a fulsome strategy for going forward

From Jennifer Payne to Everyone:

Just found some links I was looking for about recent DEI experiences/resources:

Heard this Forbes 30 under 30 lister interviewed on CBC - sounds like an amazing individual and personal story, and initiative for marginalized youth in Scarborough.

Curtis Carmichael: <https://www.forbes.com/profile/curtis-carmichael/?sh=447ad95419ca> and Source Code Academy: <https://www.sourcecodeacademycanada.ca/>